
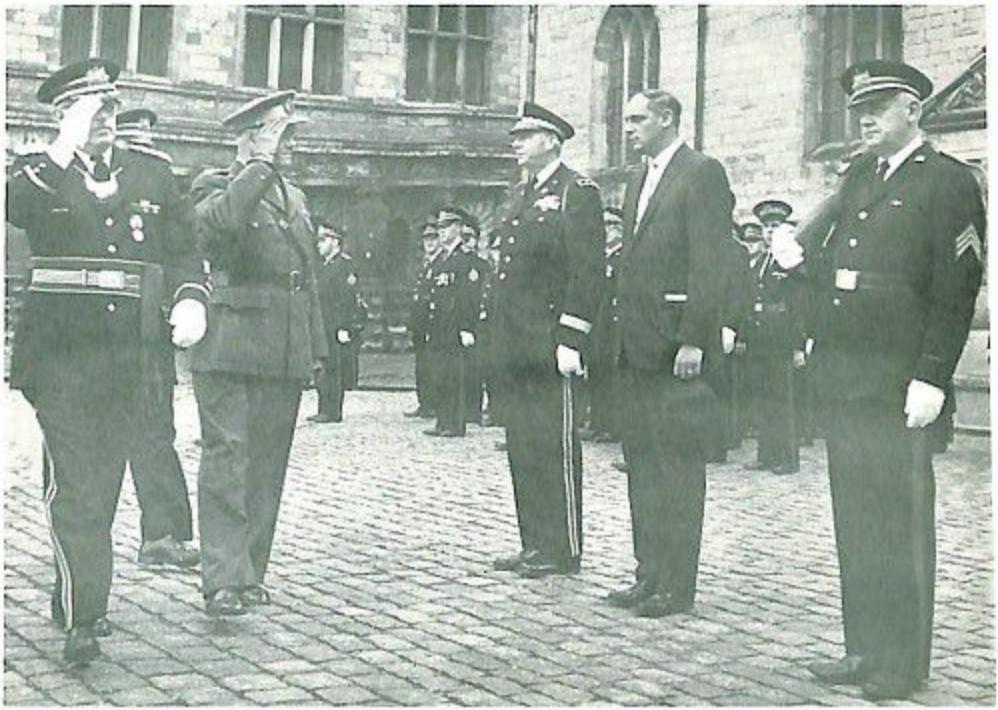
MAJOR KINGSTON, CAPTAIN LYNCH, LT. NYBOE WITH THE COMPANY RENDERING HONORS AT MEMORIAL PARK IN DENMARK. THIS IS THE SITE OF THE UNKNOWN DEAD WHO WERE KILLED BY THE GERMANS IN THE CLOSING DAYS OF WORLD WAR II

PRINCE KNUD REVIEWS THE COMPANY AT HIS RESIDENCE SORGENFRI CASTLE OUTSIDE OF COPENHAGEN, DENMARK — OCTOBER 1963

A SOLID SILVER BOWL PRESENTED TO HIS MAJESTY KING FREDERICK IX OF DENMARK AT A RECEPTION TENDERED THE OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY AT FREDERIKSBORG CASTLE IN DENMARK

Oliver Sanberg—President of the Danish Defense Brothers, greets Major Kingston upon arrival at Copenhagen Airport, October 1962.

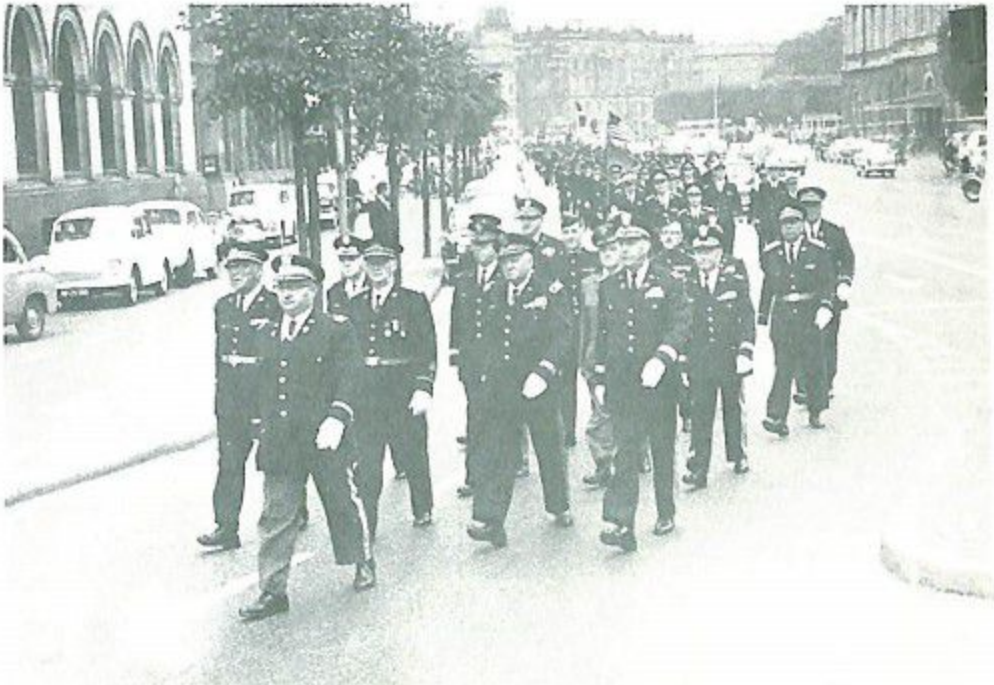


Colonel Gabel-Jorgensen, Castellan of Kronberg Castle in Elsinore, Denmark, reviews the company, October 1962.

Oliver Sandberg of the Brothers of the Defense of Denmark presents the Danish Colors to Major Kingston upon arrival at the Copenhagen Airport — October 1962

Deputy Major of Boston Henry Scagnoli is greeted by Major Urban Hansen of Copenhagen at the arrival of the Company at Copenhagen Airport, Denmark — October 1962

Major Urban Hansen of Copenhagen, Denmark addresses the members of the company in the Town Hall — October 1962



Colonel Walter T. Anzom leads the Honorary Staff during parade from Kings Market in Copenhagen, Denmark — October 1962

Colonel Gabel-Jorgensen takes the review in the Main Court Yard of Kronberg Castle in Elsinore, Denmark — October 1962

Major Kingston presents a Paul Revere Bowl on behalf of the Company to Colonel Gabel-Jorgensen Castellan of Kronberg Castle in Helsingor, Denmark — October 1963

Major Kingston, Captain Lynch, Brigadier General Pereira and Colonel Robin Hunter of the H.A.C. hold a Press Conference on the steps of the White House, Washington, D.C. upon the arrival of the Honourable Artillery Company — May 1963

Major Kingston and Captain Lynch place a wreath on the grave of Dag Hammarskjold in Uppsala, Sweden — October 1962